--	---	--

Fanny Hindley was born at Antrobus, Cheshire, in the first 3 months of 1878. Her birth was registered at Runcorn (8a 215). GBBBBG

In her younger days she lived at Hammersmith Villas, Antrobus. In the 1881 Census Fanny Hindley was aged 3 years, born at Antrobus, and living with her parents in the Pools Platt area of Antrobus. The family was actually living at Hammersmith Villas.

Fanny attended Arley School, which was about a mile away across the fields. At the time of the 1891 Census Fanny, aged 13, had left school and was a dressmaker's apprentice. As her mother was a dressmaker it is likely that Fanny was learning from her mother. Fanny was still living with her parents in the Pools Platt area of Antrobus.

Although the 1901 Census lists Fanny (aged 23) and her parents as living in the area of Hill Farm, Antrobus I believe they were still at Hammersmith Villas. Her brother, Frank, aged 28, was also at home. Fanny was a dressmaker working from home.

Nellie Bailey was the daughter of Fanny's oldest sister, Emily.

Later in life Fanny and Arthur lived at Holly Bank, Knutsford Road, Antrobus, in a wooden building with a fantastic garden. The house could not be insured because it was wooden. By 1996 there was a brick built house on the same site.

The brick house (centre) on Knutsford Road, Antrobus is on the site of Fanny's former home. The picture was taken in the early part of 1998 at the junction with Hollins Lane.

At Holly Bank Fanny was renowned for her open house. Anyone who walked in was made welcome and the kettle was always on. Fanny was a big lady who was always baking and she produced some really good cakes.

Fanny died on 16th November 1958. Her death at the age of 80 was registered at Runcorn in 1958(Q4).
