Sara Hindley was born in the second quarter of 1874 at Sandiway (near Northwich), Cheshire, probably at the family home in Littlesdale Lane, close to the village of Hartford. BGBGBGB

Sara was baptised in the Parish of Hartford on 19th July 1874. (Some written documents write her name as Sarah).

In the 1881 Census she was aged 6 years, and she was living with her parents in Littledales Lane.

At the time of the 1891 Census Sara was 16 years old, and was still living with her parents in Littledales Lane. She was employed as a pupil teacher of elementary subjects but it is not known at which school she taught.

On 9th August 1899 she married Henry John Ford, a widower.

Henry John Ford was baptised at Holy Trinity Church, Castle, Northwich on 10th April 1859. He was the son of John (a labourer) and Ann Ford of Hartford. In the 1881 Census he was living at 31 Chapel Street, Castle. He was Clerk to the Registrar of Northwich County Court. On 19th September 1882 Henry John Ford married Emily Bretherton at Great Budworth Church. They were both living on Castle at the time. Henry was aged 23 and was a Solicitors Clerk. Emily was aged 22 and she was a School Mistress. It is likely that they lived in Darwin Street, Northwich.

Emily was only 37 when she died. Emily Ford of Darwin Street, Northwich was buried at Witton Church, Northwich on 31st March 1897.

The marriage was recorded at Weaverham Parish Church.

Sara married in 1889 so it is possible that the photo was taken in the late 1880s.

Judging from the 1901 and 1911 Censuses it looks as though Sara gave up her teaching job about the time of her marriage. She became a housewife and helped to look after two children from Henry John's first marriage.

Sara had a child of her own in 1901. The birth of Margery Ford was registered at Northwich in the third quarter of 1901. Marjorie of 3 Darwin Street, Hartford Hill, Northwich was baptised in the Parish of Weaverham on 14th July 1901. Her birth date, 25th June 1901, was also written in the Baptism Register. Her parents were listed as Henry John and Sara.

It is not known if Sara had any other children.
