In the 1871 Census Lois Hindley was aged two years, born at Weaverham, and living with her parents at Beech Lane, Weaverham. The house was called "Keepers Cottage".

The 1881 Census told us that Lois was 12 years old, and she was living with her parents at Beech Lane, Weaverham.

Her parents had moved to Clay Croft House, Anderton, by the time of the 1891 Census. Lois was 22, and had moved with them to Anderton, but no occupation was listed.

In the 1901 Census Lois was 32 years old and single. She was living with her mother, four brothers and one sister at Clay Croft House, Anderton. Again, no occupation was listed.

The 1911 Census told us that Lois was living at Comberbach, Northwich, with a brother and sister. No occupation was listed. (The house would be Keepers Cottage on Marbury Road).

From the above data I think it is safe to assume that Lois never had a job, probably as a result of some disability.
